Restoring Your Railway

Government's stated objectives:

- The Department for Transport programme works with councils to help support left-behind communities.
 - Supporting new housing developments and boosting tourism.
 - Opening up jobs and education opportunities.
 - Investment targeted at regenerating local economies.
 - Cut down on car emissions and ease local road congestion.

Recently, the monthly average of Tarka line journeys was over 55,000 users.

2022 had over 650,000 journeys! Breaking all records!

Simply adding Bideford station's catchment would overload the existing service and be slow.

Local authorities and residents' rail-mindedness

ACE Rail's additional hourly limited-stop faster service compared to the existing slow most-stations service.

Modal shift to more sustainable transport means journey time competitive with road and doubled service frequency with more capacity for growth.

Why Bideford?

- A 'Greater Bideford' resident population of over 30k, growing recently by 3k per decade, the largest shortfall in rail connectivity in all Devon.
 - That number doubles up to 60,000 people in the summertime!
 - Sustainable access.
 - A and B Roads: often slow and unpredictable journeys whether by car or bus.
 - In line with central government's carbon neutral targets.
 - Access for all further and higher education students.
 - Tremendous employment opportunities.
 - Fremington Parish has over 13,000 parishioners - enough to justify a railway station.
 - local transport network now: congested, no realistic prospect of capacity growth.

Devon County Council's Bideford to Barnstaple railway safeguarding

In 1999 DCC, TDC and NDDC paid a team to carry out a feasibility study (The Maunsell Report). The report stated that the Barnstaple A361 bypass was to be constructed with enough height clearance for a future railway.

Gross Domestic Product per head by Devon's 10 District and Unitary councils 2020

Torrige is ranked in the lowest 3.5% of all local authorities in the UK!

A restored railway service would bring economic prosperity for the entire area.

Bideford residents would gain (much-needed) employment opportunities without the need to own a private vehicle.

Housing affordability in Torridge and North Devon is 15% worse than the average for England, putting Torridge and North Devon in the top 40% of least affordable districts in England.

A new railway service will at least help make those new homes more sustainable for some of their travel needs.

people and place
Planning for our future together

“People and Place” project, the new joint Local Plan.

- 1. North Devon and Torridge District Councils now support the Bideford railway and await the Initial Business Case findings.
- 2. As well as a new rail link, where will the line run?
For Bideford to re-join the national rail network, the new joint Local Plan for Torridge and North Devon needs to have a policy commitment to define and protect a route.
- 3. It will then become a matter for future public and stakeholder consultations, and can gather more widespread support.

Next steps

We have secured the funding for an independent specialist advisor to produce an Initial Business Case for the project.

Great Western Railway, Railfuture and Tarka Rail Association have each part funded the IBC.

The Initial Business Case is expected to be published in March 2023.

Thank you for listening.
